

Course Descriptions

1004 - Effective Bible Reading

The course identifies methods and approaches to Bible study that can lead to spiritual growth and Christian maturity. Areas that will be covered include the structure of the Bible, resources for personal study, and other subjects that will add meaning to the reading of the Bible.

4013 - Theology of the Early Church

This course examines the theology of the early church as its beginnings came through Judaism, and how it formed and became a standard New Testament view. Special emphasis will be placed on the prophecies of Jesus Christ and the Pauline letters.

5012 - Becoming an Effective Deacon

This course is designed to assist the deacon in becoming aware of his/her biblical base. The students will be presented with ideas that will enable them to more effectively perform their duties while working harmoniously with the pastor in carrying out the mission and program of the church.

5018 - The Purpose & Program of the Church

This course is designed to study and outline the purpose and program of the church. Students will develop a "mission statement" for their church utilizing biblical principles. Students will then identify programmatic thrusts for the church in line with the teachings of Jesus.

6021 - Spiritual Maturation

This course is designed to explore student conscience of the Holy Spirit and Spirituality. This study will reveal how to recognize the presence of the Holy Spirit in our lives and how the Holy Spirit shapes the lives of believers through various life experiences.

Psalms, Hymns and Spiritual Songs

This class will explore the effective way of strengthening the music ministry in the local church. Special emphasis will be given to music personnel and types of music that are appropriate for worship celebration to include the hymns of the church that have become a dying species and music ministry decorum.
